

STREETS YOUR EVENT

For enquiries or to buy pictures featured here, contact Azlee or Yazid at 03-2056 9318. You can also email azlee@nstp.com.my or yazid@nstp.com.my

(From left) Datuk Robert Teo, Tan Sri Kishu Tirathrai and S. Radhakrishnan.

(From left) K. Kesavapany, Dr Ma Swan Hoo, Datuk Seri Dr S. Subramaniam and Singapore High Commissioner Ong Keng Yong.

Tan Sri Dr M. Jegathesan and Datuk A. Sani Karim.

(From left) Regina Low, M. Ramanathan, Ashok Nair and Singapore deputy High Commissioner Ariel Tan.

(From left) P.C. Shivadas, Dhinesh Baskaran and Datuk Seri Gopal Sri Ram.

BOOK LAUNCH AT THE LAKE CLUB

KUALA LUMPUR: Human Resources Minister Datuk Dr S. Subramaniam joined ambassadors and other dignitaries as he launched a book, "The Dancing Girl: A History of Early India", at the Royal Lake Club recently.

The book, by former Singapore Foreign Affairs Minister, the late Dr Balaji Sadasivan, was published by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies, Singapore (ISEAS). The launch was held in collaboration with the Medico Legal Society of Malaysia and the Gandhi Memorial Trust of Malaysia, which was represented by its vice-president Dhinesh Baskaran and president S. Radhakrishnan respectively.

Present were Singapore High Commissioner Ong Keng Yong, ISEAS director and former Singapore High Commissioner to Malaysia K. Kesavapany, Dr Balaji's widow Dr Ma Swan Hoo and club president Datuk A. Sani Karim.

Proceeds from the book sales went to the Pure Life Society and the Malaysian Association for the Blind, which were represented by its president Datin Paduka Mother Mangalam and Datuk S. Kulasegaran, respectively. By Adrian David